

EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor.

State and enforcing the power which that party holds in the South by fraud.

It is very evident that the Democratic party has started out to carry the next Presidential election at every hazard.

and having accidentally obtained power in several Republican States, will resort to any trick to gain their point.

Blaine Not in It.

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, of which Mr. Russell B. Harrison, the President's son, is one of the proprietors, says in an editorial article:

It is a violation of no confidence to say that Secretary Blaine is not a candidate for the Republican nomination at the Presidential election next year. That is settled fact.

Not only is Mr. Blaine not a candidate, but under no circumstances will he consent to use his name in this connection.

If there seems to be any doubt in the mind of the public as to the matter, Mr. Harrison, in one time and in his own way, utterly, finally, and absolutely dispel that doubt. He is ready to do so now.

When Mr. Blaine was called to the most important place in the Cabinet he wrote a letter to the President's lawyer, tendering the appointment which letter clearly outlined the President's views, a statement that distinctly implied, in the clearest terms, unqualified and unreservedly to the honor of the Administration, and by no act, word or intention has Mr. Blaine, at any time since, let his loyalty open to the slightest suspicion.

Mr. Blaine, by virtue of his position, is the chief and most intimate adviser of the President. If he were to accept nominal nomination he will have no stronger, able, and constant supporter than his Secretary of State.

So much for a prediction that the history of the immediate future will amply justify it.

The Treasury's Available Cash.

Having predicted that the McKinley Tariff bill would bring in a revenue so great that the Treasury would be filled with surplus, and having found his predictions wholly unfulfilled, the free trade press has now taken the other tack, and is crying out that the Treasury is nearly empty that it will be unable to pay its obligations.

It is said that when our brethren of the opposition do not discover some overwhelming impediment "alms" about to befall the country on account of a Republican Administration, they are not without their own devices to bring about a change of administration.

On Friday last, May 1st, under the provisions of the McKinley tariff bill, all special taxes imposed on dealers in manufactured tobacco and manufacturers of tobacco and cigars, were repealed.

The report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shows that for the year 1890 there were 635,965 dealers who paid a tax of $2.40 each. This will wipe out about $1,600,000 of Internal Revenue taxes annually.

After the elections of last fall Democratic electors and orators all over the country, joyfully proclaimed "Protection is dead." At this present writing, however, it looks as if protection is very much alive and that it will dominate all other issues in the campaign of 1892.

The Democrats are most industriously circulating "tariff reform" and free trade literature, and doing what they style "Missionary work," while the Republicans "Tariff League" and other organizations have taken measures to have the McKinley bill discussed and explained by the gentleman whose name it bears, in a series of brilliant speeches through the Republican press of the country.

At the Tariff League banquet in New York last week, Senator Dill mapped out the issue in the Presidential election of 1892 as follows:

"The issue upon which the next Presidential election will be fought will be precisely the issue upon which President Harrison was elected and Mr. Cleveland was defeated. The contest then was between the system of tariff legislation advocated by Mr. Cleveland, known as 'tariff for revenue only,' which is but another name for free trade, and the principles enunciated in the platform of the Republican National Convention. And I am confident—confident because I have faith in the good judgment and patriotism of the people of this country—that when this issue is again separately put before them, with ample opportunity for discussion, as well as replete misrepresentations from free trade sources; when the last tariff legislation had time to vindicate itself, and its triumph vindication is assured as anything in the womb of the future, I am confident, I say, that the result will be an increased majority for protection."

The bill to exclude Chinese emigration from the United States, which became a law some time since, is now yielding its legislative fruits. Within the past few days the President appointed ex-Senator John W. Blair as Minister to China, and Mr. Blair has started for the flowery kingdom by way of San Francisco. On reaching Chicago he found a dispatch from Secretary Blaine recalling him, and he has returned to Washington. It is alleged that while the bill above alluded to was under discussion in the Senate, Mr. Blair indicated in some dramatic remarks about the Chinese people and their government, which gave great offense to the author of that country, and when his appointment as Minister became known, the Emperor notified the President that it was offensive and that he would decline to receive Mr. Blair as our representative. It being impossible to force a Minister on any foreign power, the only course left for this government to pursue was to recall Mr. Blair and revoke his appointment.

"For every that is dark, And breaks that is vain, They have shown in this instance a becoming self-respect in declining to receive an Ambassador so important a country as is ours, a gentleman who has made himself personally obnoxious to their countrymen."

For downright rascality, the Democrats of Michigan take the cake! For the purpose of obtaining two seats in the State Senate, and thus securing the power to carry out their nefarious plans, they took the opportunity when a number of Republican Senators were absent at a State Convention, and before any report had been made in the case, to unseat two Republican Senators; then a gerrymander of the Congressional districts was arranged, and a bill changing the method of choosing Presidential electors was passed, whereby they are to be chosen by Congressional districts. As the present Government is a Democrat, the scheme will probably become a law, with the result that in the next Presidential election one-half of the vote of the State, which is Republican, will be cast for the Democratic candidate and the vote of Michigan will be practically lost. This is only another Democratic way of stealing a

SEASONABLE ADVICE.

How to Select a Spring Medicine.

A Short Extract from a Lecture by Dr. S. B. Hartman.

A Pamphlet on Spring Diseases Sent Free.

Are you thinking of getting a spring medicine? Do you feel those old symptoms which are so apt to come every spring and remind you that you need something to purify your blood, or cleanse your system, or tone up your digestion and appetite? Now, if you were ever a time in your life when you needed to use good judgment, it is here and now.

To begin with, you will see, after a moment's reflection, that the medicine which is made that would be the proper remedy for all cases of spring affections. It is, certainly, a matter of considerable moment to you which of the many sarsaparillas, tonics and blood purifiers you may use for your particular case. If you will carefully observe the following directions, you will never be disappointed in finding a prompt relief.

If your symptoms are general weakness, roaring in the head, slight faintness, brook specks moving before the eyes, twitching of the eyelids, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, flatulency, and shortness of breath, a worn-out, tired feeling from morning till night; if any or all of this group of symptoms describe your case, Pe-ru is the spring medicine you need. There is no other medicine that will so quickly and permanently relieve you.

If you have had La Grippe during the past winter and have not fully recovered your natural health and strength, Pe-ru is precisely what you ought to get at once. It will surely cure you in a short time.

Should your symptoms be dizziness, coated tongue, sour stomach, bloating after your meals, constipation, biliousness, pain in the back, scant, high-colored urine, heavy, drowsy feeling, then the remedy that will never fail to cure you is Man-A-Lin. Avoided above symptoms disappear at once, when taking Man-A-Lin, as a white froth before a June sun. Man-A-Lin greatly quickens the functions of liver, bowels and kidneys, and cleanses the system of all impurities.

If, however, your symptoms are confined to the joints, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, or any other chronic rheumatism, boils, scrofula, blood poisons of any kind, or any other manifestation of impure blood, the proper remedy for you to get is La Grippe.

There is, positively, no use in taking any other spring medicine, for you are not getting a spring medicine, you are getting a cure for your disease, and you can be relied on as a quick, sure and reliable cure in all blood diseases.

The above advice is exactly as it fell from the lips of one of the most renowned practical lecturers and lecturers of the country, Dr. S. B. Hartman, who has been getting a spring medicine you had better get for the many years experience and extensive observation of this celebrated authority.

A pamphlet of lectures by Dr. Hartman on spring diseases, their cause and cure, sent free to any address by The Pe-ru Medicine Company, of Columbus, Ohio.

Creditors Disappointed.

Delaware, Pa., May 2.—The proposition of Delamater & Co. to settle with their creditors on the 20-cent basis has failed.

The terms of this proposition were that it should be unanimously accepted by May 1, and a meeting of the creditors was held Friday evening at which it was voted that only about $22,000 of the money should be advanced to the company.

The committee proposed to assume the responsibility for the amount, and demanded of Delamater & Co. that they consider the proposition accepted and proceed to fill their part of the contract.

Senator G. W. Delamater withheld his assent until yesterday, when he stated to the committee that the terms of the proposition had not been complied with, and that the funds which had been promised to assist him in making the first payment of 20 cents per share would not be advanced.

The failure of the Delamaters to make good their proposition has caused great excitement. It is finally understood that the proposition was only a ruse to gain time, and that the unsecured creditors will realize very little on their claims.

John Kelling, a contractor and builder, who had $200 in the bank when the assets were liquidated, has been notified that he must pay the balance of his claim on Friday morning.

The failure of the Delamaters has caused great excitement. It is finally understood that the proposition was only a ruse to gain time, and that the unsecured creditors will realize very little on their claims.

The Imitator of Jack the Ripper Caught.

New York, April 30.—The human fiend and imitator of the London brute who murdered Catherine Eddowes in London, has been caught.

He is a Frenchy No. 1, and occupied room No. 33 in the 4th ward hotel, with a woman named Mary Ann Lopez, the night of the murder. This room was across the hall from that occupied by the woman Eddowes, and her unknown companion. From information in the possession of the police, it appears that the murdered woman's companion had left her some time before one o'clock on Friday morning.

"Frenchy No. 1" had a love for the old woman, but for some reason had become intensely jealous of her. He heard her complain about the room, and shortly afterwards he got up, and leaving his room-mate Mary Lopez, asleep, crossed the hall and deliberately strangled and disemboweled his victim. This story is substantiated by the following facts:

When "Frenchy No. 1" had entered the room, he recrossed the hall and opened the door No. 33. In that room he left the evidence of his guilt. When the police made their investigation traces of blood were to be found on every side.

The only chair in the room contained was covered with blood, smeared over it from the clothes the murderer wore, he having thrown it down when he entered the room. The bed clothes were found to be covered with blood, the murderer some time during the night having thrown himself upon the bed, and spots of blood were on every article in the room.

When Frenchy was arrested Inspector Bryant examined his hands and finger-nails. The latter he carefully scraped, and found plain and distinct traces of human blood. From the time the man was arrested but little could be learned from him. He has made a few statements, but all have been contradictory that the police have been unable to make but little of them.
